STAT 4. [] [] called to report a telephone contact from Mr. John Hvasta, in the office of Representative Paul Findley (R., Ill.), who requested that the [] be mailed to his home address rather than the Congressman's office. Mr. Hvasta seemed to fully appreciate the official use treatment accorded this publication including mailing it to offices rather than personal residence.

STAT 6. [] Scott Cohen, in the office of Senator Charles Percy (R., Ill.), called to request []

STAT I said we would pass his request on.

STAT Mr. Cohen commented upon the excellent briefing he received on Thursday at Headquarters.

STAT 7. [] Talked to Ed Willett, General Counsel office, Civil Service Commission, and he advised that Chairman Macy had signed the letter presenting the Civil Service Commission views on the revised Agency legislation.

STAT 8. [] Mr. Ed Applebaum, in the office of Representative Robert Kastenmeier (D., Wis.), called to speak further on the recruitment situation at the University of Wisconsin. He advised that Mr. Kastenmeier thought the Agency plans canceling the late November visit by our Personnel representatives was a wise move to avoid confrontation and permit time for "cooler heads" to prevail.
